For you

The world in which we practice challenges us daily. CPD4nurses allows you to update and expand your understanding of the latest developments in health care. We offer you straightforward, insightful articles on topics that support fundamental practice.

At your pace

Take control of your professional development. Not everyone has the time or the money to attend classes. CPD4nurses allows you to earn CPD hours when and where you want, and to do it at a pace that suits you.

Written by nurses, for nurses. CPD4nurses offers online professional development to New Zealand nurses.

- Earn CPD hours when and where you want
- New article published each month
- Content that's relevant to your practice
